HE AWOKE, AND REBUKED THE WIND, AND SAID TO THE SEA,

"PEACE! BE STILL!"

THE WIND CEASED, AND THERE WAS A GREAT CALM.

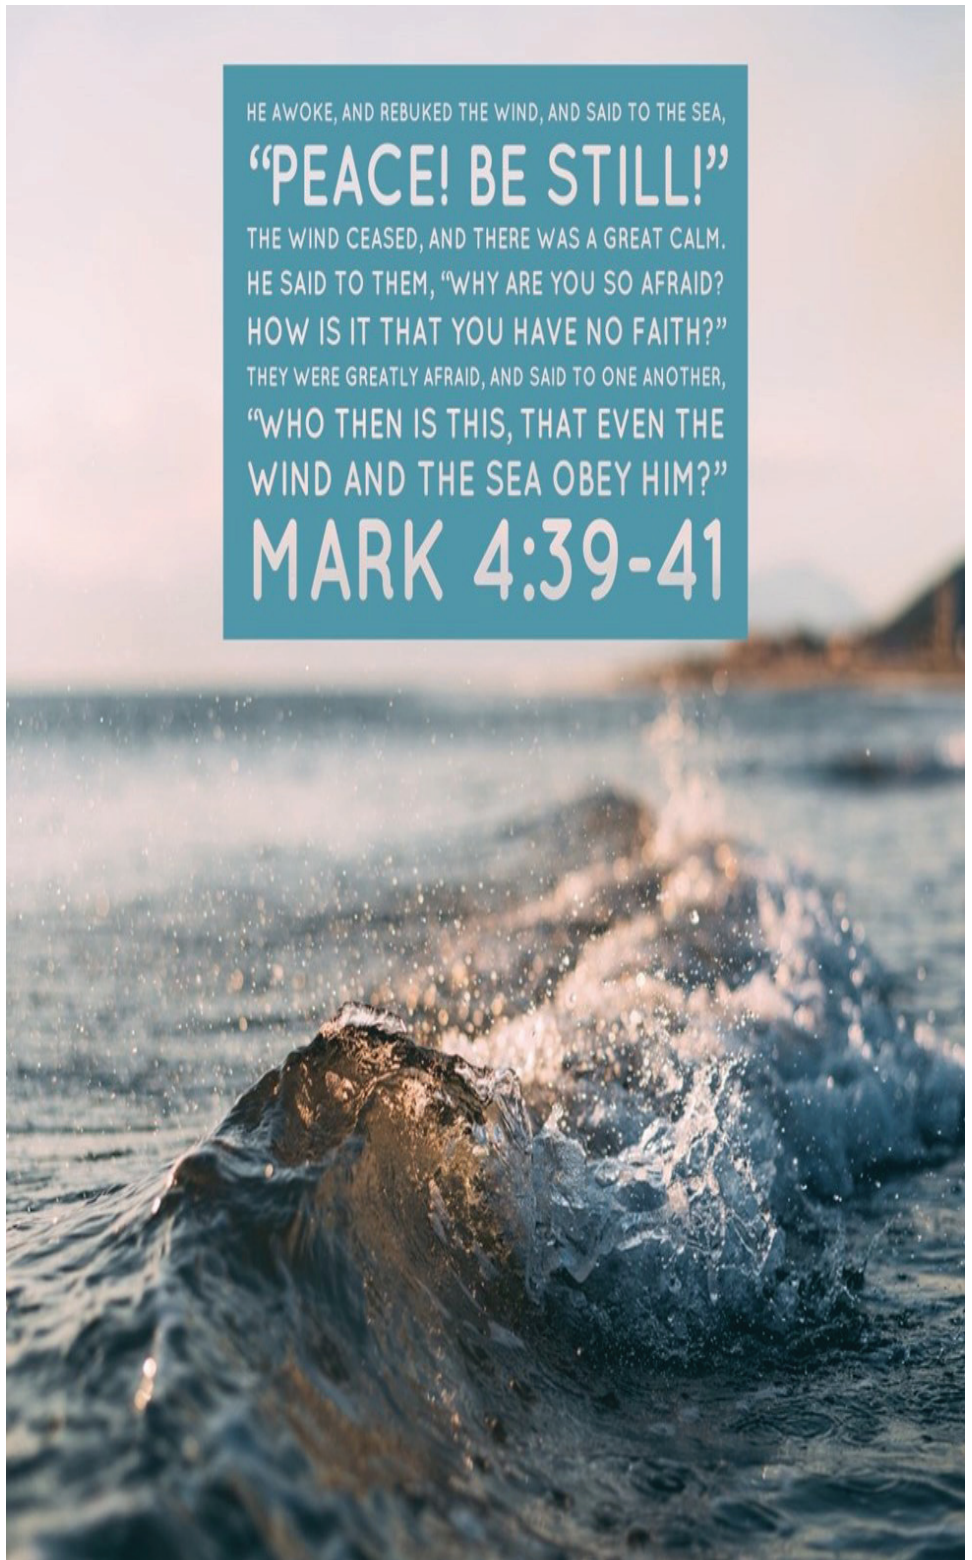

HE SAID TO THEM, "WHY ARE YOU SO AFRAID?"

HOW IS IT THAT YOU HAVE NO FAITH?"

THEY WERE GREATLY AFRAID, AND SAID TO ONE ANOTHER,

"WHO THEN IS THIS, THAT EVEN THE

IN THE PARISH

A message from our Associate Pastor

Dear Parishioners of St. Timothy Church,

After 8 years at St. Timothy Parish it is time me to say “good-bye”. I have been re-assigned by my community to the Chaplaincy at York University, in North York starting in August. Back in early 2013, when my assignment in Halifax, Nova Scotia was coming to an end, I was asked by my superiors where I would like to be assigned and I unhesitatingly told them that I would like to go to St. Timothy Church if ever there was an opening. My father and his family were immigrants from the Ukraine and my mother’s parents arrived from Ireland and Norway. Knowing some of the hardships of settling in Canada, my heart has always desired to minister with immigrants. Pretty much my whole priesthood, beginning in Houston, Texas in 2000, has been spent with those who have had to leave their native countries for one reason or another and settle in a new country. My experience at St. Timothy Church has been a very enriching experience to say the least! To be fortunate enough to be immersed in the cultures of people from around the world has been a dream come true for me. God loves the richness of diversity and so do I. There have been so many, many blessings I have received from serving at St. Timothy Church. I thank all of you for being very patient and accepting of all my weaknesses and limitations. I am consoled by the thought that I will still be residing close by and will still see all of you now and again. I am also consoled knowing that your present pastor, Fr. Galen Bank is one of the finest pastors in our community who will be gently and lovingly attending to you. And that our staff of Dc. Tom, John, Lita, Chris, and Fr. Brenton (who will be arriving shortly) will continue to serve you generously and lovingly. I would like to thank all of you for your kindness and generosity towards me over the years and I would also like to thank all the lay ministers and the many volunteers at St. Timothy Church who have generously served along side me, and I along side you over the years. God bless you for all the work we have accomplished in our Lord’s vineyard!! Please know that I am not completely leaving you and that I can still be present to you in various capacities and contacted through my email address or through the office at St. Timothy Church. May the Lord’s blessings be continually upon all of you!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Daren
