RECOVERING DOCUMENTS

- If you have an original baptism certificate(s), please submit the original and a copy.
- If you do not have your original certificate, please contact the parish where you received the sacrament and request a baptism certificate.
- When contacting parishes in other countries, it may be helpful to find a family member or friend who can contact the parish office locally.
- The internet can be a helpful resource for tracking down contact information or parishes and dioceses, which keep careful records of all sacraments.
